

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

March 5, 2023

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

God is our Provider

2 Peter 1:2-4: "Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, in order that by them you might become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust."

We Confess Our Sin

O great God, just and holy, we, sinful, unclean creatures, come before you in deep humility, confessing our many sins and our total unworthiness. Enter not into judgment against your servants, for in themselves no man living shall be justified. Have mercy upon us, O God, according to your lovingkindness; according to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out our transgressions. We are aware of our many failings, and that we deserve nothing but your displeasure and punishment.

But heavenly Father, you are loving and merciful. Though our sins be as scarlet, make them white as snow. In the wounds of Jesus, you have provided cleansing for our uncleanness, and pardon for our iniquity. Through Your Holy Spirit, let us take refuge at all times in the cross of the Savior, and put our trust in His atoning sacrifice.

Pardoned by Your mercy, strengthened through your Word and grace, we beg you to show us how we can go out with a joyful heart, eager to serve you in our work, and in service to our family and neighbors. Hear us for the sake of our precious Redeemer, Jesus Christ. Amen.
