

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

July 30, 2023

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

God is Longsuffering

Romans 9:22-24: "What if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction? And He did so in order that He might make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory, even us, whom He also called, not from among Jews only, but also from among Gentiles."

We Confess Our Sin

Sovereign Lord, Your will is supreme in heaven and earth, and all beings are creatures under Your power. You are the Father of our spirits; Your illumination gives us understanding; Your providence governs our lives. But, O God, we are sinners in Your sight; You have judged us so, and if we deny it we make You to be a liar.

Yet in Christ You are reconciled to Your rebellious subjects; give us the ear of faith to hear Him, the eye of faith to see Him, the hand of faith to receive Him, the appetite of faith to feed on Him; that we might find in Him light, grace, and eternal life. You are the inviting one; may we hearken to You, the almighty instructor; may we live more to You, the light dweller, inaccessible to men and angels, hiding Yourself behind the elements of creation, but known to us in Jesus. Possess our minds with the grandeur of Your perfections. Your love to us in Jesus is firm and changeless; no thing can separate us from it; and in the enjoyment of it, nothing can make us miserable. Preserve us from formality and hypocrisy in religion; enable us to remember what You are and what we are, to recall Your holiness and our unworthiness; help us to approach You clothed with humility, for in our hearts are vanity, forwardness, backwardness to duty, and misguided affections. Let us never forget Your patience, wisdom, power, faithfulness, care; and may we never cease to respond to Your invitations. In Jesus' name, amen!
