

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

March 9, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

God is our Protector

Psalm 121:5-8: "The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade on your right hand. The sun will not smite you by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord will protect you from all evil; He will keep your soul. The Lord will guard your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forever."

Psalm 121

We Confess Our Sin

O Holy God, mighty in power and ineffable in majesty, whose Name is great, and whose goodness passes knowledge- to You alone be praise and adoration, from the hosts of heaven and all who dwell upon the earth.

We humble ourselves in Your presence, confessing our unworthiness and sin. We have not sought first Your kingdom and righteousness; we have been fretful and troubled about many things, and have neglected those who need Your peace. We have not always loved our neighbor as ourselves, nor always done to others what we would have them do to us. We have yielded to temptation; the sin we should have hated we have committed in Your sight.

Most gracious God, our heavenly Father, forgive us we entreat You. Cleanse us from all unrighteousness, renew a right spirit within us, and protect us from the allurements of sin, through the grace of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. Amen.
