

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

March 30, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Christ is the Lamb of God

John 1:29-30: "The next day he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, 'Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is He on behalf of whom I said, 'After me comes a Man who has a higher rank than I, for He existed before me.'"

We Confess Our Sin

Precious Lord Jesus, give us faith to behold our name engraved in Your hand, our soul and body redeemed by Your blood, and our sinfulness covered by Your life of pure obedience. This past week found us guilty of foul revolt against your majesty, your holiness, and your love. Though You have saved us by the precious blood of the Lamb of God, indifference has been our main response. We have looked upon obedience as optional, and the life of sacrifice as unimportant. Consequently this morning, we are filled with mourning and sadness as we consider the cross. Oh Lord, may...

Your comforts cheer us in our sorrows,
Your strength sustain us in our trials,
Your blessings revive us in our weariness,
Your presence render us a fruitful tree of holiness,
Your promises establish us in peace and joy,
Your revivings kindle in us undying devotion.

Oh, search our heart. Show us more of our corruptions and helplessness, that we may flee to You, cling to You, rest in You, and abide in You, as the beginning and end of our salvation. May we never vex You by indifference or our waywardness; may we never grieve You by our cold welcome. Rather, may we always be found pleasing to you as children resting upon grace. Answer our prayer, O Lord, for Your great name's sake. Amen.
