

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

May 4, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Christ is Attentive to Prayer

Isaiah 65:22-25: “They shall not build, and another inhabit, they shall not plant, and another eat; for as the lifetime of a tree, so shall be the days of My people, and My chosen ones shall wear out the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they are the offspring of those blessed by the LORD, and their descendants with them. It will also come to pass that before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall graze together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent’s food. They shall do no evil or harm in all My holy mountain,’ says the LORD.”

We Confess Our Sin

Grant, Almighty God, as You have assured us of Your goodness and mercy in Christ, that we might draw near to You. We have sinned, O Lord, and thus brought upon us Your disciplining hand. Yet now we do earnestly repent and forsake all our sins and rebellious ways. Especially we forsake unbelief and pride- the roots of all sins. Cause us to live for Your glory and by Your power. And as You kindly offer Yourself to us as Father, may we be drawn by this kindness, to yield ourselves wholly to You by a glad obedience. Send Your Spirit again to us in power that our faith and obedience may not fail. In Christ’s name. Amen.
