

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

May 11, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Christ is Unchangeable

Micah 7:18-20: "Who is a God like Thee, who pardons iniquity and passes over the rebellious act of the remnant of His possession? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in unchanging love. He will again have compassion on us; He will tread our iniquities under foot. Yes, Thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Thou wilt give truth to Jacob and unchanging love to Abraham, which Thou didst swear to our forefathers from the days of old."

Psalms 121

We Confess Our Sin

O Eternal God, who alone has immortality, ever living in glory, unchanged, unchangeable, bend down Your ear to hear. We confess with shame past hours wasted, in unprofitable reading and other worldly entertainments. If future days are ours, guide us that no more time be squandered in vain pursuits. Impress on our minds the shortness of time, the work to be done, the account to be rendered, the nearness of eternity, and the misery of lamps expired when the voice of the Bridegroom is heard. May we never forget that Your eye always sees us; Your ear always hears us; Your recording hand commits all to a book of remembrance; all hidden works must be unveiled at the Judgment Day!

Above all things may we seek Your favor! May Christ be the pulse of our hearts. May He speak in every word of our lips. May He shine in every step of our earthly walk. Lord, grant our requests, for His dear sake. Amen.
