

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

August 3, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Christ is our Comfort

We Confess Our Sin

O Lord Jesus Christ! From the depths of woe we raise the voice of lamentation. Turn a gracious ear to us and hear our prayer. If You should mark our sin, who could stand before You? It is only by grace that we come to You. It is grace and grace alone that can wash away our sin! Alas! Our works are all in vain. No man can glory in Your sight; all must alike confess Your greatness, and live alone by mercy.

Therefore our trust is in You, O Lord, and not in our own merit; on Christ our soul shall rest, His Word only can uphold our fainting heart. Your promised mercy is our strength, our comfort, and our support; we wait for it with patience.

Though our sins are great and our woes speak harm, Your grace abounds all the more; Your helping love knows no limit. Oh Jesus, You are true and good, forgive us our multitude of sin. Free us from all sin and sorrow. In Your name we pray. Amen! (Taken from Trinity Hymnal #554)
