

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

July 27, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Prelude

Worship Theme

God is the Creator

Psalm 33:6-9: "By the word of the Lord the heavens were made, and by the breath of His mouth all their host. He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap; He lays up the deeps in storehouses. Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him. For He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast."

God Calls us to Worship Before the Cross

We Confess Our Sin

Almighty God, whose glory, goodness, and grace abound on every hand, we confess that we have not rejoiced in You as we should, because our affections have been misguided and misplaced. We have set our love upon creatures, rather than upon You, the Creator. Instead of being grateful for the good things we have, we have grumbled and complained about what we lack. Instead of trusting Your providence in our lives, we have questioned Your wisdom and doubted Your love. We ought to have used our freedom and prosperity to serve Your kingdom and our neighbors, but we have squandered them on ourselves. We have delighted in newspapers and novels more than Your Word; the passing pleasures of sin rather than the lasting joys of Your will; the temporary trifles of time, more than the permanent things of eternity.

Forgive us, Father, for Jesus' sake. And by the Spirit, whose fruit is joy, give us eyes to see things as they are, and hearts to rejoice in things which are worthy of our joy, especially Yourself, Your Son, and Your salvation. Be glorified in our gladness, we pray through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
