

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

September 28, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Prelude

Worship Theme

God is Good

Lamentations 3:24-26: "The Lord is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I have hope in Him." The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the person who seeks Him. It is good that he waits silently for the salvation of the Lord."

God Calls us to Worship Before the Cross

Ps. 106:1-2

+We Adore Him

Psalms 72

We Confess Our Sin

Merciful Lord! Pardon all our sins of this day, week, year; all the sins of our lives, sins of early, middle, and advanced years, of omission and commission, of morose, peevish, and angry tempers, of lip, life, and walk, of hard-heartedness, unbelief, presumption, and pride, of unfaithfulness to the souls of men, of lack of boldness, of bringing dishonor upon Your great name, of deception, injustice, untruthfulness in our dealings with others, of impurity in thought, word, and deed, of covetousness which is idolatry, of money unduly hoarded, impulsively squandered, not consecrated to Your glory, the great Giver.

Forgive our innumerable sins in private and in the family, in study and recreation, in the busy haunts of men, in the study of the Word and in the neglect of it, in prayer irreverently offered and coldly withheld, in time misspent, in yielding to Satan's wiles, in opening our hearts to his temptations, in being unwatchful when we sense him near, in quenching the Holy Spirit.

Pardon the sins which we have committed, against light and knowledge, against conscience and the restraints of Your Spirit, against the law of eternal love. Forgive all our sins, known and unknown, felt and unfelt, confessed and not confessed, remembered or forgotten. Good Lord, hear; and hearing, forgive. Amen.
