

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

October 12, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Christ is Victorious

Psalm 45:3-5: "Gird Thy sword on Thy thigh, O Mighty One, in Thy splendor and Thy majesty! And in Thy majesty ride on victoriously, for the cause of truth and meekness and righteousness; let Thy right hand teach Thee awesome things. Thine arrows are sharp; the peoples fall under Thee; Thine arrows are in the heart of the King's enemies."

We Confess Our Sin

Blessed Lord, bend Your pitying eye of love and mercy upon us today. Draw near to us, as we venture once more on praying and on pleading ground. Alas! O God, we have sinned against light and love, warning and mercy, grace and privilege. The retrospect of life is a retrospect of guilt. We mourn over our manifold shortcomings: the alienation of our heart from You, the fitfulness of our spiritual frames, and the ebbings and flowings in the tide of our love.

Blessed Jesus! We flee anew to the pavilion of Your love! We have no other hope or refuge but in Your finished work, Your matchless atonement, and Your spotless righteousness, Your victory over death! There is in You an all-sufficiency for every need. Finite necessities cannot exhaust infinite fullness. Let us hear Your voice saying, "Your sins which are many, are all forgiven!"
