

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

November 16, 2025

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Christ is Kind

Luke 6:35-36: "But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He Himself is kind to ungrateful and evil men. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful."

We Confess Our Sin

Great God of infinite holiness, we confess that our thoughts are corrupt, our affections perverse, our words unclean, and our deeds disobedient.

Great God of infinite might, we confess our utter weakness, in ourselves, to do what is pleasing to You—including worship.

Great God of eternity, our lives are not only wicked and weak, but brief as well, when measured by Your eternal days.

According now to Your righteousness offered to us in Christ, Your power made ours through His resurrection and Spirit, and the eternal life which He gives His people, cleanse us; strengthen us; renew us. Help us to worship You now, and to walk with You in the days and weeks to come, and until we join the glorified spirits in heaven, to praise Your name forever. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
