

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

April 12, 2026

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Daniel 10:10-13: "Then behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. And he said to me, 'O Daniel, man of high esteem, understand the words that I am about to tell you and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.' And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling. Then he said to me, 'Do not be afraid, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart on understanding this and on humbling yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to your words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia was withstanding me for twenty-one days; then behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia.'"

We Confess Our Sin

O God, we have taught others, and yet have not taught ourselves; while we profess to know You, we have denied You by our works. We have named the name of Christ, and yet have not departed from iniquity. You have brought us up as children, but we have rebelled against You. Your word has been to us precept upon precept, line upon line; yet like the man who looks at himself in a mirror, we have gone away, forgetting what we are like. When some have been overthrown like Sodom and Gomorrah- we ourselves have been as brands plucked out of the burning- yet we have not returned to You.

O Lord, speak peace to us; and let us not return to our folly. Show us Your steadfast love and grant us Your salvation. You have exalted Jesus to Your right hand as Leader and Saviour, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. Forgive us, O God, for Jesus' sake.

Amen. Taken from Romans 2:21; Titus 1:16; 2 Timothy 2:19; Isaiah 1:2; 28:13;
