

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

October 11, 2026

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

Prelude

Worship Theme

God is our Helper

Psalm 118:5-9: "From my distress I called upon the Lord; the Lord answered me and set me in a large place. The Lord is for me; I will not fear; what can man do to me? The Lord is for me among those who help me; therefore I shall look with satisfaction on those who hate me. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in princes."

God Calls us to Worship Before the Cross Ps. 31:23-24

We Confess Our Sin

O most high God, we humbly admit that we are as senseless men, and fools by nature. We do not know You or understand Your ways! We envy the evildoers who seem to flourish, though their destruction is certain.

But O Lord, You are an All-wise God! You are exalted over evil-doers, so we reverence You! You are exalted over Your covenant people, so we adore You! Our sins do not confound Your mercy! Our transgressions are not beyond Your grace! We plead the person and work of Your Son, Jesus Christ, for our acceptance before You. And in Him again we ask, that You send forth the Spirit of adoption, into our hearts that we, by Him, may draw near. Amen.
